

Nau mai, Haere mai

Gospel and Treaty Conversations

HUI

mahi tahi, working together

When? Friday evening, 9 October and Saturday morning and afternoon, 10 October 2015

What? Keynote speakers and workshops with time for group discussion

Where? Laidlaw College Wananga Te Amorangi
80 Central Park Drive, Henderson, Auckland

Who? Christians of all denominations

Kaupapa: Reason for the hui

This seminar is an opportunity for people of faith to consider the links between the Gospel and the Treaty, and the conversations of respect and mutual enrichment this invites us into. Christians were closely involved in the signing of the Treaty and have, therefore, a special role of guardianship for the Treaty relationship. This gathering follows last year's hui on the Gospel and the Treaty, which recognised the bicentenary of the Gospel coming to Aotearoa New Zealand and the fact that 2015 is the 175 year anniversary of the signing of Te Tiriti o Waitangi.

All welcome.

Guest speakers include: Manuka Henare, Hana Seddon, Matua Hakiaha
David Moko, Stuart Lange, Wendy Fowler
Rod Thompson, Moeawa Callaghan

This is an Invitation to this important hui. Everyone who comes will have a contribution to make. Please put the date in your diaries! Detailed programme and registration forms will be circulated in August.

Manaakitia mai te Kaupapa

Any further inquiries to: Rick.Waters@manukau.ac.nz OR wfowler@laidlaw.ac.nz